Program Rules & Eligibility

Qualifying Shows:

We've organized the Bar ALE Junior Awards Program into three levels based primarily on the size of the show—from the county level right on up to the majors.

Only junior shows are eligible. Prospect, jackpot, and open shows do not qualify for the Bar ALE Junior Awards Program, nor do shows that are not open to an entire county.

- Major Shows (Junior Shows Only) Major Shows are recognized for their size and the large number of entries from all areas of one or more states. They do not include national breed shows, which are covered in the next level below. Examples: National Western Stock Show, North American Livestock Exposition, American Royal, Oklahoma Youth Expo, Houston Livestock Show.
- State, Regional & National Breed Shows (Junior Shows Only) Entries from 20 or more counties of any state and national breed show. This level includes all state fairs. Examples: Iowa State Fair, Oklahoma State Fair, San Angelo Stock Show, Muskogee Regional Livestock Show, National Junior Angus Show, National Junior Hereford Show.
- District/County & State Breed Shows (Junior Shows Only) Entries from fewer than 20 counties of any state show, state breed show and county fair show. Prospect, jackpot, and open shows do not qualify for the Bar ALE Junior Awards Program, nor do shows that are not open to an entire county.

Qualifying Participants:

- Only youth showing animals/poultry as part of a 4-H or FFA project are eligible.
- Only animals and poultry that have been fed Bar ALE feed as the sole commercial ration for a minimum of 60 days prior to the show are eligible, except for cattle which require a minimum of 90 days.
- Program winners are limited to receiving the highest award per species per show year.
- Applicants for Major, State, Regional and National Breed Show awards MUST submit a high res, digital photo of the winning animal or pen of turkeys, poultry or rabbits . A photograph is optional for District and County Show awards .
- Bar ALE brand management retains the sole right to determine the eligibility of the applicant and to interpret program rules.
- Upon request, shows that do not appear to meet the definition of an eligible show will be reviewed and considered for eligibility by the Bar ALE Rewards Manager.
- This program is subject to change or cancellation without prior notice.
